

Hazelnut Field Day

Tuesday, August 11, 1-4PM

Rush River Produce, Maiden Rock, WI

A Field Day for Existing and Aspiring Hazelnut Growers

Join John and Terry Cuddy and researchers from the University of Wisconsin and University of Minnesota to learn about hazelnut production and the new and exciting work to support hazelnut growers in the Midwest.

Establishing and Managing Hazelnuts

—Learn what it takes to grow hazelnuts

Midwest Hazelnut Website

—Learn about a new website for growers of hazelnuts in the Upper Midwest

Hazelnut Improvement Program

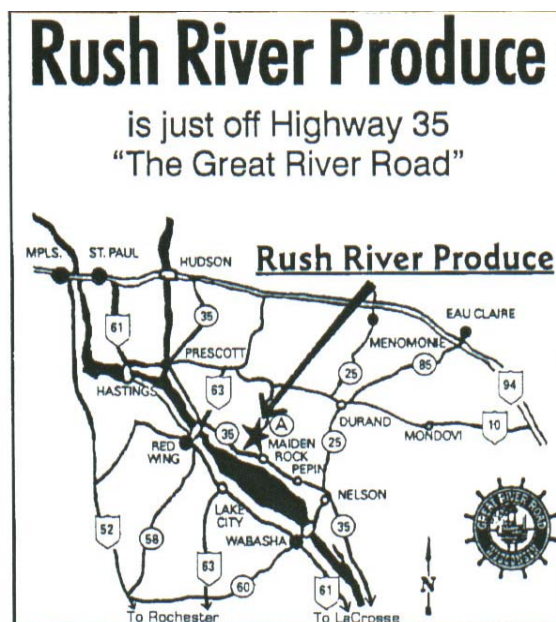

—Learn about an innovative program to help growers identify superior hazelnut plants

Simple Plant Propagation

—Learn how to vegetatively propagate your best hazelnuts through mound layering

Forming a Hazelnut Grower's Association

—Meet other hazelnut growers and discuss forming a potential WI association

Located 3 miles off the Great River Road
From Highway 35 near Maiden Rock, Take County Road A two miles north to 420th Street
Turn left onto 420th Street and go uphill one mile
Turn right at the top of the hill onto 200th Ave Go a quarter of a mile to the end of the road

www.rushriverproduce.com

The field day is free, but pre-registration is required. Contact Jason Fischbach at 715-373-6104 ext 5 or jason.fischbach@ces.uwex.edu to register or with questions.

An EEO/Affirmative Action employer, University of Wisconsin-Extension provides equal opportunities in employment and programming, including Title IX and ADA requirements. Requests for reasonable accommodations for disabilities or limitations should be made prior to the date of the program or activity for which it is needed. Requests will be kept confidential.